The scoop of the day

Pictures of you

As part of his work John Brooks, Exhibition Manager of Canberry Communications has brought together a powerful exhibition called Pictures of you.

The collection takes a unique and creative approach to portray people with lived experience of physical disability and mental illness. Photographer Hilary Wardhaugh, and various subjects have collaborated on this project to produce portraits that reflect them honestly and tell parts of their story in a meaningful way.

The Exhibition opened on the 2nd of December 2022 at the Belconnen Arts Center and continues until the 5th of February 2023.

Gumnut House

Rubies Community care is excited to announce that we will be opening another beautiful, newly furnished SIL house at the end of February in Mawson.

We have named the property Gumnut House it is located on a quiet street close to the Mawson shops. We look forward to welcoming the new house mates and creating community connection. We will keep you in the loop of their adventures.

The latest updates

On Saturday 21st Jan, Bluebell housemates made their way to the National Zoo and Aquarium. With sunscreen, hats and drink bottles at the ready and a perfect 25 degrees to accompany them, Annette, Glen & Bruno had a full, fun filled day accompanied by Katherine, Janak & Vishal.

After a long days walking, and an animal overload, a well-deserved lunch of fish and chips was in order.

According to Janak, we don't know who was more exhausted, Annette, Bruno & Glen or our wonderful team.
